

The clock is ticking.
The language is flexible.
Are you ready for
the challenge?

At Bloomberg, we're not scared of doing difficult things, and we know you aren't either. Ready to show us what you've got?

Bloomberg CodeCon

Face off against your classmates at CodeCon, a live coding competition hosted by Bloomberg. Push your programming and problem solving skills to the limit as you race against the clock! The top three winners from Wisconsin-Madison will be invited to the Bloomberg headquarters in NYC for a showdown against finalists from schools across the globe. The competition is two hours. First place will receive a prize!

Before the challenge, enjoy dinner with our engineers!

Date: Wednesday, November 28th
Time: 630pm
